Road racing on part of the Sydney Olympic course in the heart of Centennial Park

The RIDE FOR LIFE features elite-level road races through to a Corporate challenge as well as NSW Schools Championships and a family-orientated fun ride. The day caters for all aspects of cycling using part of the same road-racing course from the 2000 Sydney Olympic Games.

So come, race or ride & raise money for the cancer unit of the Prince of Wales Hospital. Challenge your friends, your work colleagues and also take part in the family fun ride. Racing is on a car free protected course in the heart of Centennial Park and special corporate packages available. Great entertainment, food stalls, racing and recreational pedalling for the family – be there!
